

Press Release

For Immediate Release:

May 7, 2007

For Information Contact:

Christy A. Lipscomb
Press Information Officer
Office of the Prince George's County Executive
(301) 952-4672

2nd Annual Metropolitan International Jazz Festival Returns to Prince George's County for Labor Day Weekend 07'

Upper Marlboro, MD – Today, Prince George's County Executive Jack Johnson announced that the 2nd Annual Metropolitan International Jazz Festival will return to Prince George's County.

“Last year, Emmet Roberts, CEO of Shortcake Entertainment, LLC took the County's entertainment image to an exciting level due to the line-up of star studded Jazz artists. We certainly want to continue that tradition and look forward to more encore performances during this year's upcoming concert,” said Johnson

The Metropolitan International Jazz Festival will take place Labor Day Weekend August 28 – September 1 at the Show Place Arena in Upper Marlboro. Tickets will be made available for purchase at select locations in the near future. To stay abreast of ticket availability please check www.princegeorgescountymd.gov.

###